Re: Investors Bank Robbery - January 14, 2020

On January 14, 2020 at 12:10 hrs, the Bordentown City Police Department responded to the Investors Bank located at 213 Rte 130 Bordentown for a report of a Bank Robbery that had just occurred. Once on scene officers obtained the surveillance video of the Robbery. The video showed a male subject wearing a hooded sweatshirt and black ski mask approach a teller's station and pass a note to the teller demanding money. The subject produced a bag which the teller filled with cash totaling $6,779.00. The subject fled the area on a bicycle north in the merger of Rte 130/206.

Bordentown City and Township Police canvassed the area and obtained surveillance footage from several local businesses which showed the suspect travel to the front parking lot of a local business, place his bicycle in the rear of a Hyundai Santa Fe, and flee the area north on Rte 206.

Later that evening Bordentown Township Detectives followed up on potential vehicle leads and located the suspect vehicle in the area of Jarvis Place in Trenton. The Detectives observed a male subject enter the vehicle and drive towards Rte 29. Trenton Police conducted a motor vehicle stop with the suspect vehicle and the driver was identified as the Robbery suspect George T. Rodgers of Jarvis Place Trenton, NJ. Bordentown City Police took custody of George Rodgers from the stop. Rodgers was observed to still be wearing clothing observed in the surveillance video and possessed some of the cash proceeds.

Rodgers was taken to Bordentown City Police Headquarters where he was processed and charged with Robbery and Theft. Rodgers was transported to the Burlington County Jail where he was lodged.

The next day Bordentown City Police obtained a search warrant for Rodgers' vehicle and residence on Jarvis Place in Trenton. The warrant was executed with the assistance of the Trenton Police Department's SWAT team. A search of the residence located additional clothing worn by Rodgers during the Robbery as well as the bag, ski mask, bicycle, and the majority of the missing cash.

Rodgers will remain in custody at the Burlington County Jail pending court action. Investigation handled by Detective Justin Lewandowski of the Bordentown City Police and was assisted by Bordentown Township Police Detective Josh Pavlov.
